A PROGNOSTICATION for ever;

Made by Erra Pater, a Iew, born in Jury, Doctor in Astronomy & Physick: very profitable to keep the Body in health.

And also Ptolomeus saith the same.

ERRA PATER,

A Prognostication for ever, mabe by Erra Pater.

AS I find in the Science of Astconomy, there be foure manner of cholers in mans body, of the four complexions. The first is Blood, the second, black Choler; the third, Flumes; and the fourth, yellow Choler: and if one of the four lack, all the body will be forthwith dead, for as much sustaineth one of them the body as the other.

And each of them ought to be at a certain, for if one of them surmount another all the body shall haue damage thereby, and all four be perillous: for if the Blood surmount the other, it will sons destroy and overcome the body, and make him die: for it gathereth and likewise congealeth even right on the heart, and the breath, and in that manner lessening by little and little is overcome and dead, but all that time when the great course taketh him, it may soone be asswaged by taking away a little blood from him, for then all the perill will asswage.

Also the black cholors be right perillous, and if they surmount the other, they doe great dammage to the body; by many and diuers meanes: for they cause the body to fall by the Euill sicknesse, and to lose his wit and knowledge, and become a foole, and they cause all the body to be full of euill scabs, and oft-times to be mesel, and they make a man to bee fearfull and a coward, & of many euill manners. And by hearbes, flowers, fasting, abstinence, drinks and medicines, they may bee asswaged.

The Flumes that be white, be right perillous also, when they surmount the other Cholers of the body, they doe great dammage and hurt: for they engender gouts, and many other euill sicknesses that be cold, and they also hurt the feet, the legs, the knees, the hands, the reines and the teeth: and make the mouth and the breath stinking, and the nose, and the eares, and causeth many other diseases.

ses and sicknesses. And they may bee asswaged by hearbes, flowers, roots, medicines, drinks, and by vomiting.

Also the yealow cholers be perilous, for when they surmount the other cholers in a mans body, they asorbent the heart and trouble the braine, and make all the members feble and sott, and take away the will and appetite from the body, that it may neither eat nor drink, and also they change a mans colour, and make him to lose his sight and become blind. And they may bee asswaged by hearbs, flowers, roots, and by vomiting

The foure humours be of foure complexions, and they have the dominations of the body foure times in the yeare: and each of them a quarter of a yeare.

It is to be understood, that in the yeare are twelve Monthes, and in the twelve Monthes are two and fifty weeks, and in the two & fifty weeks are three hundred threescore and five dayes, and in the three hundred threescore and five dayes, are contained eight thousand seven hundred, and threescore houres.

A farthing a day is 7. pence a month; the quarter of a yeare, one shilling ten pence halfpeny farth: the yeare, seuen shilling and seuen pence.

A penny a day is two shilling foure pence the month: the quarter of a yeare 7. shillings 7. pence; the yeare, thirty shilling foure pence.

A Rule to find when Shrove Tuesday shall happen; and Easter, &c.

Obserue when the Moon is new in February, and the next Tuesday after is Shroue Tuesday; but if it change on Tuesday, then the next Tuesday following is Shroue Tuesday: The Sunday before Shroue Tuesday is Shroue Sunday. The seuenth Sunday after Shroue-Tuesday is Easter day, and seuen weeks after Easter day is Whitsunday: and the Thursday next before Whitsunday saueing, is Ascention day or Holy Thursday.

The disposition of the first part of the year Capricornus, Aquarius and Pisces.

The first part of the yeare that hath domination in the body of man, is thrée moneths, and these be their signes, Capricornus, Aquarius and Pisces. And these thrée signes have power ouer the flumes in the body of man and woman, and they be cold and moist, and they begin to reign the 24 of December, and dure till the 24 of March.

The disposition of the second part of the year, Aries, Taurus, and Gemini.

The second part of the yeare is other thrée monsths, and these be their signes, Aries, Taurus, and Gemini, and these haue power in the body of man, of the breast, and they be hot and moist. And they begin to reign the 24 of March, and reign till the 24 of June.

The disposition of the third part of the year, Cancer, Leo, and Virgo.

The third part of the yeare is other thrée moneths, and these be their signes, Cancer, Leo, and Virgo. And they haue power in the body of man of the yellow cholera; and they be hot and dry. And they begin to reign the 24 of June, and dureth unto the 24 of September.

The

The disposition of the fourth part of the year, Libra, Scorpio, & Sagittarius.

The fourth part of the yere be other thre moneths, and these be their signes, Libra, Scorpio, and Sagittarius. And they be cold and dry; and they begin to reign the 24 of September, and dure unto the 24. of December.

And by the manner of these foure seasons, every man may kepe him from all the contraries of meats, drinks and clothing, and from all other contraries. And if a man will kepe himselfe after the manner which is rehearsed in this Booke, he shall neuer haue infirmities of body by the grace of God.

Take Pellitor of Spaine, and chew it in the mouth, for it is good to purge the head and body. And eat Fennell seed and Cummin seed, for each of those seeds destroy the fumes whereof all the evils in any mans body come.

Here he sheweth of all the dismall or perillous daies that come in the yeare.

Maisters of Astronomy, and Physick that this craft first found, tell the most perillous and dangerous dayes in the year, in which if any man or woman be let bloud of wounde or bene, they shall die within 21 dayes following. Or who so falleth into sickenesse on any of these dayes, they shall never escape it till they be dead. And who so taketh any great journey in any of these dayes to go from home, he shall be in danger to die ere he come home againe: and who so weddeth a wife in any of these dayes, they shall sone be parted, or else they shall live together with much sorrow. And who so beginneth in any of these dayes any any great work, it shall never come to good end: and those are the dayes following.

That is to say.

In January are eight dayes, that is to say, the first, the second, the fourth, the fift, the tenth, the fiftenth; the seventeenth, and the nineteenth.

In February are three dates, the eighth, the tenth, and the seuententh. 2.

In March are three dayes, the fiftenth, the sixteenth, and the twenty one. 3.

In April are two dayes, the fiftenth, and the twenty one. 4.

In May are three dayes, the seuenth, the fiftenth, and the twenty. 5.

In June are two dayes, the fourth and the seuenth. 6.

In July are two dayes, the fiftenth, and the twentieth. 7.

In August are two dates, the nineteen, and the twenty. 8.

In September are two dayes, the first, and the seuenth. 9.

In October is one, the first. 10.

In November are two dayes, the first, and the nineteen. 11.

In

In December are three dayes the sixth the seuenth, and the eleuenth Et alii dicunt, the fiftéenth, and the sixtéenth.

And who so will learne the Canicular or Dog dayes, which are dayes of great danger and perill may know they begin the nintéenth day of July, and continue to the twenty eight day of August: which season is very perillous to take sickneſſe and it is also perillous to take drinks and medicines, or to let blood: but if it be great néed, then it must bée before the midſt of the day.

Here beginneth the distance between the Signes.

IT is to be understood, that there is a Circle in the Firmament, that is called Zodiack, and it is deuided into twelue euen parts, and those parts be called the twelue Signes; and in Latine these bée their names: Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricornus, Aquarius, and Pisces.

These twelue Signes are in complexion like unto the foure Elements, that is is to say, the Fire, the Ayre, the Water and the Earth: the Fire is hot and dry, his Element is likened unto the Ram, the Lyon, & the Archer, for these be hot and dry: Also the Ayre is hot and moyst, his Element is likened to the Children, the Ballance, & the Water-bearer; for they be hot and moyst. The Water is cold and moyst, and the water is likened to the Crab, the Scorpion, and the Fish. The Earth is dry and cold, to the Earth is likened the Bull, the Mayd, and the Goat, for they be dry and cold.

And every one of the Signs is devided into thirty even parts, these parts are called degrees, and every degree is devided into threescore even parts, and these parts are called minutes, and every minute is devided into threescore even parts, and these parts be called seconds, and so forth to the thirds and fourths.

It is also to be understood, that there are seven Planets, as Saturnus, Jupiter, Mars, Sol, Venus, Mercury, and Luna, These be the seven moveable Starres. The aforesaid twelue Signes take great power and might of the seuen Planets, and the seuen Planets take great power of the twelue Signes: for the Planets be to the Signes as the Soul to the Body; and the Signes to the Planets as the Body to the Soul. For like as the body can dre nothing without the Soul, nor the Soul do any thing without the Body, no more may a Signe without one of the seuen Planets.

power

Saturnus is the highest, and next beneath Saturnus is Jupiter, beneath Jupiter Mars; beneath Mars, Sol; beneath Sol, Venus; beneath Venus, Mercurius; beneath Mercurius, Luna.

The wise Philosophers say it is from the Earth to Luna xv. M. viii. C. l. Miles

From Luna to Mercurius, is xii. M. 2. C. 10. Miles and a half.

From Mercurius to Venus as many.

From Venus to Sol is 23. M. 4. C. and 37. Miles.

From Sol to Mars is 15. M. 7. C. and 25. Miles.

From Mars to Jupiter, is three score and eight thousand, seuen hundred, and ninetéen Miles.

From

From Jupiter to Saturnus as many.

From Saturnus to the firmament, is six score M. iiii. C lxxvb. miles.

The sum of all the miles is three hundred thirty eight thousand four hundred threescore and four miles.

Hereafter followeth a conjunction of the change of the Moon.

When the Prime is on the Letter A. the third day before the Prime the six hour, shall be the change of the Moon. And you shall begin to take your dais at midnight, for a day natural is from midnight to midnight. When the Prime is on the Letter B. then the third day and fourth hour after midnight it shall change. When it chanceth on the Letter C. then the fourth day and eighth hour. When it is on the Letter D. then the fourth day and twentieth hour. When it is on the Letter E. the fourth day and eighteenth hour. When it is on the Letter F. then the third day and sixteenth hour. When it is on the Letter G. then the third day and fourteenth hour.

The disposition of the xii Moneths for blood letting.

January.

In the month of January let thée not blood on the first day, for it is perillous, nor the second day, nor the fift day, nor the vi day, nor the xv. day, nor the xvi. day, nor the xx day, nor the xxv. day, but as often as thou wilt drink good white wine fasting, and also take good hèed of the dayes that be above written, for they be perillous to bléed on, except the sign be right good for blood letting.

February.

In the month of February eat no pottage made of Yocks or Mallows, for they are venom: And if thou hast nèed to bléed on thy wrist or on thy arm, bléed not the fourth day, nor the first day, nor on the eighth day, nor on the xvi day, nor on the xxiii. day, but that the sign be very good, and thou have great nèed.

March.

In the moneth of March eate Figs, Raysins,

Raysins, and sweet meats and drinks, and eat hot meats, and let thee blod on the right arm, on the fifth day, or on the xii. day, or on the xvii. day, for that is good against all manner of Feuers: but beware, thou bleed not the first day, nor the ix. day, nor the xvi. day, nor the xii. day, nor the xviii. day, if thou mayst chose: and if thou do, look the sign be very good.

April.

In the month of Aprill, bleed on the left arm on the third day, or on the eleuenth day, or on the fiftenth day, and thou shalt haue no great headach, nor leese thy sight of all that year, and vse fresh and hot meats: but bleed not the seuenth day, nor the eighth day, nor the tenth day, nor the twentieth day, for these dayes be not good for bleeding.

May.

In the month of May rise early, and eat and drink betime, and vse good meats and drinks; but eat neither of head nor fet while that last: and let thee blood on the first, or on the eightenth day, on which arm thou wilt, or on the twenty seuenth day, or on the twenty eighth day. and it shall much helpe thee against all maner of euil: but beware that thou bleed not the third day, nor the sixth day, nor the fiue and twentie.

June.

In the moneth of June some Physicians say, that it is good euery day to drink a quantity of cold water fasting, and rule thee of thy meat and drink, and if thou haue need, bleed on the twenty eighth day, for that is good, but beware that thou bleed not on the seuenth day, nor on the tenth day, nor the fifteenth day, nor the sixteenth day, nor the twentieth day.

July.

In the moneth of July, keep thee from Lechery, for then the brain and the humours are alwaies open: and bleed not in this moneth, but if thou haue great need, and then beware alway that thou bleed not on the thirteench day, nor on the fifteenth day, for it is dangerous.

August.

In the moneth of August eat no manner of Worts, nor any manner of hot meats and drinks of spicery, nor bleed on the first day, nor the twentieth day, nor the twenty ninth day, nor the thirtieth day: the other daies thou maist bleed for great need, if the Sign be good for blood letting, but not else, if thou love to keep thy body in good health.

September.

In the moneth of September all manner of fruit that is ripe and not infected is good to eat: and bleed not the third, nor the fourth, nor the sixtenth, nor the one and twentieth, nor the two and twentieth day: but bleed on the seuententh or eightenth day, for the dropsie, phrensie, palsie, or the falling evil, and dread thee not all that year after any of them.

October.

In the moneth of October [illegible] and wholsome wine, and bleed not except great need make thee, and look that the sign be very good, but yet beware that thou bleed not on the third day, nor on the sixth day, nor on the fourteenth day, and thou wilt do well.

November.

In the moneth of November bleed not but for need, for all the blood is gathered that time upon the head vein: bathe not, but vent thee a little of grasing, for then all the humours be ouer quick to bleed, and if cause be that thou haue great need for to bleed, beware of the fift day, the sixt day, the fiftenth day, the nineteenth day, the twenty eighth day, and the twenty ninth day.

December.

In the moneth of December bleed not but if thou haue great need for thy health. And in case thou haste much need to bleed, beware of the fift day, the seuenth day, the sixteenth day, the seuententh day, and the xxi. day: but bleed on the xxi. day for that is not hurtful: and in this moneth come not nigh the fire with thy shanks.

A rule to know and understand the year that shall be plenteous and in great abundance of Goods.

In die Dominicæ, that is, Sunday.

IN the year that January shall enter on the Sunday, the Winter shall be cold and moist, the Summer shall be hot and rainy, with great abundance of Corn, of Wines, and other graines, and of all garden Fruits and Herbs: there shall be little Oyl, abundance shall be of all manner of flesh: some great news shall men hear spoken of Kings and Prelates of the Church, and also of great Princes, great wars and robberies shall be made, and many young people shall die.

In die Lunæ, that is, Munday.

IN the year that January shall enter on the Munday, the Winter shall be peaceable enough, and the Summer shall be very temperate. There shall be great floods of waters that shall breake out of their limits and bounds, and many [illegible] upon the Sea shall perish, and in that yeer shall reign divers sicknesses, and changes of great Lords shall be made: many women shall perish in travelling with child, many great Lords shall die. That yeer shall be but little Grais and Wastard seed, nor but little Oyle; but there shall be plenty of Corn and Wines, and Flesh shall be good cheap.

In die Martis: that is, Tuesday.

IF the yeer that January shall enter on the Tuesday, the Winter shall be unstedfast and changeable, for without all doubt it shall freeze in the Prime, which shall hurt sore the Rye, the Vines, and the Flowers. The Summer shall be dry, hot and burning, insomuch that the Garden Herbs shall have no power to come out of the ground. All things shall be dear save only Corn: many men shall die of the bloody Flix, there shall be no tidings of thunder, lightning, nor tempest. But all flesh shall be very dear, many [illegible] shall this yeer turn, and so be [illegible]

In

In die Mercurii: that is, Wednesday.

IN the yéer that January shall enter on the Wednesday, the Winter shall be temperate, but in the end there shall be Snow and Frosts, the Prime time shall be rainy, there shall be great abundance of Grass, of Hay, of Corn, of Fruits, of Wines, and generally of all good things: the Summer shall be little cloudy, by which shall come great sickness, Poor Labourers, as Handy-crafts and Artificers shall gain meetly well that yéere: there shall be many Théeves, by whom the mean people shall be sore pillaged and discomfited: great war, battel and slaughter shall be towards the middest of the yéer, by the which shall come great good to some men: in the end of the yéer shall be divers pestilences, botches, and falling evils, especially near the Sea.

In die Iovis: that is, Thursday.

IN the yéer that January shall enter on the Thursday, the Winter shall be long and most part dry, and the yéere shall be very wholsome. The Prime time time shall be wholsome and very windy: the Summer shall be temperate, and Harvest shall be most part rainy, so that the waters shall sore break out of their bound: the Wheat and Wines shall be good cheap: there shall be of Oats, Hay, Grass, and of Fruits, competently enough. Great war and division shall be between the Church and the Kings and Princes, and in the end the Princes shall haue victory of their enterprises. This year women shall set themselues much to Lechery: also people shall be well eased of tares and talleges.

In die Veneris: that is, Friday.

IN the year that January shall enter on the Friday, the Winter shall be long and dry, and the Summer unwholsome: Harvest shall be dry, all Corn shall bee deare: the vintage shall be good enough, and abundance of Oyle, of Fruits, of Hay, of Grasse, and garden Herbs: the world shall be sore persecuted with divers sicknesses, as sore eyes, and of Elbowes: many young Children shall die: great

Thunder

Thunder, Lightening, and Tempest, shall be, that shall grieue soze all the ground: there shall be Earthquakes: all Cloth shall be good cheap, poz people shall gain little oz nothing: many beasts shall die by hunger, through the scarcity of the same.

In die Sabbati: that is, Saturday.

IN the year that January shall enter on the Saturday, the Winter shall be temperate sufficiently, and in the Prime time shall be Frosts, the which shall destroy the Trees, the vines, the Oyles, and the Fruits: the Summer shall be meetly temperate: the Harvest time shall be good cheap, of garden hearbs shall be plenty: all flesh shall be good cheap: many old people shall die: Fever Tertians shall grieve soze the world, and many murmurations; wars and murthers shall be done by one against another, and neighbour against neighbour, and many other evil acts shall be oftentimes committed and done.

Of

Of the signification of Thunder on every day in the week.

IF it thunder on the Sunday, there will be a great death of Clarks and Judges and also perverse people by signification.

If on the Munday it chance to thunder, many women shall die then, and the Sun will suffer Eclipse, by signification.

If it thunder on the Tuesday it betokeneth great plenty of Corn.

If on the Wednesday it chance to thunder, it betokeneth that year common women and light wenches, and foolish women shall die, and then shall be great blood shedding.

If it thunder on the Thursday, then shall be very cheap and much plenty of Corn.

If on Friday it chance to thunder, it betokeneth that a great man shall be slain, and divers other murthers, and other evils.

If on Saturday it chance to thunder, it betokeneth that there shall be a great general pestilent plague, whereof many shall die.

The saying of Erra Pater to the Husbandman.

IF the day of Saint Paul be clear,
Then shall betide an happy year.
If it do chance to snow or rain,
Then shall be dear all kind of grain.
But if the wind then be aloft,
Wars shall vex this Realm full oft:
And if the clouds make dark the Skie,
Both Neat and Fowl this year shall die.
